Claim #1

Supporting Facts: C/O II Falmer did show deliberate indifference to a known risk of harm to myself when he failed to adhere to WVDOC policy directives and or Operational Procedures which governs the escort of segregation inmates who are wearing mechanical restraints. As a result of C/O II Falmer's deliberate indifference I sustained a head injury, a back injury, an index finger injury, a neck injury, and a leg injury. <sup>see</sup> Exhibit # 1 & 2

Claim #2

Supporting Facts: Commissioner Betsy Jividen, Warden Karen Pszczolkowski, Deputy Warden William Yarcinska, AWS Mike Hill, Shift Supervisor Richard McKeen, C-2 Pod supervisor Russell Cook failed to supervise, train and discipline C/O II Falmer in proper procedure of escorting an inmate to and from showers in mechanical restraints which in turn resulted in my injuries. <sup>see</sup> Exhibit #3

Claim #3

Supporting Facts: Corporal Russell Cook & C/O II Christopher Falmer told the other inmates on the seg unit that the reason that showers for everyone were so late at night was because I wanted to write grievances about how they weren't doing their jobs right and be a whistle blower. This is retaliation for writing grievances on how I sustained my injuries.

Claim #3

Supporting Facts: They have put a target on my back with these comments. They have also put my life in danger by doing this. I have been called a Rat and other choic~~es~~ words and have been threatened bodily harm by the inmates in seg because of thier retaliation of my first amendment right. See exhibit #5

Claim #4

Supporting Facts: Medical Administrator Jamie Gray, Nurse Practitioner ~~Pamela~~ Moore, and LPN Michelle Scott were deliberately indifferent to a known known risk of harm and or a serious medical condition. As a result of LPN Michelle Scott's deliberate indifference I was put back in my cell in seg for over 30 minutes where I lost consciousness and woke up on the floor. I also vomited before they came back to get me in a wheelchair. I told the nurse, who saw me fall on the steps, that I was dizzy and that I had blurry vision, and that my ears were ringing, and that I felt nauseous and she said, "go into your cell until I'm done with pill call" instead of taking me to medical immediately for evaluations. Pamela Moore showed deliberate indifference by releasing me from Medical the next day w/o any evaluation into any of my injuries sustained by the fall on the steps, except my finger. And for down playing my injuries as not that serious. As a result I am still suffering from these injuries. See exhibit #4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11

Claim #5

Supporting Facts: I requested special management because I submitted two (2) affidavits regarding three inmates who attacked and extorted an inmate at NCF. I submitted these affidavits in U.S. District Court for the Northern District of W.V. (Exhibit) (#1 & 2). Because I am a witness against those three (3) inmates that are violent, I sought special management for my own protection. The respondent was deliberately indifferent to this risk of harm to myself and denied my request for special management. (See claim or grounds [REDACTED] See exhibit #12, 13, 14 & 15 (#5))

Claim #6

Supporting Facts: By virtue of my incarceration I am in a "special relationship" with the state of W.V. Because I am in a "special relationship" with the state of W.V., the respondent has an affirmative duty to protect me from a threat from third party violence. However the respondent has failed to protect me. See exhibits #12, 13, 14, 15 See claim or grounds [REDACTED] (#5)

Claim #7

Supporting Facts: I have a protected liberty interest pursuant to article III § 5 of the W.V. constitution and 8th amendment of the U.S. constitution, in the W.V.D.O.C. policy directive 326.03 "special management" and its written procedures. The respondent blatantly violated the procedures of W.V.D.O.C policy directive 326.03 and denied my request for special management. (See claims or grounds) [REDACTED] (#5)
